holding our loved ones with cancer close to our hearts

If you have had cancer, watched someone suffer with it or have lost a loved one to it, you know there is no greater fight in life. The courage it takes to face this disease is beyond measure. That's why the CoxHealth Foundation wishes to recognize and honor all cancer patients with an annual celebration of strength, fortitude and a drive to survive and thrive. While we all know not every battle is won, we do know that every battle is equally hard fought.

Join us this year in our Knot Forgotten Campaign to publicly display words of hope and encouragement as well as messages of love and care. You can purchase a "knot" and we will attach your personalized message and display it in the lobby of the Hulston Cancer Center for all to see and read. This tree has served as inspiration to hundreds annually while at the same time raising funds for cancer patients who need a helping hand during their treatment. The form is below – simply complete, clip and mail with your gift in the enclosed envelope. Then watch as the tree fills with the stories of those who will never be forgotten thanks to this campaign to keep all cancer patients in our hearts and minds this holiday season. Your kindness will touch countless lives.

Proceeds from the Knot Forgotten Campaign benefit the Glauser Oncology Fund that provides Advocates at no cost to every cancer patient as well as resources for those needs not met by insurance, federal programs or other community groups.

Bows can also be purchased online at coxhealthfoundation.com
