You are cordially invited to CRAP.

Yes, CRAP. We poke fun, make butt jokes, talk openly about farting and even offer you the chance to walk through a life size colon. Sounds a little crazy but it's all for a life changing cause. CRAP has now provided 40 people a chance to have a colonoscopy at no cost. Colonoscopies stop colon and rectal cancers. Yes, STOP cancer before it starts.

If you want to be a part of a solution to a problem that impacts our local community, come join us at CRAP. Dress up, dress down, but we hope you wear brown.

All proceeds are going to local patients who need a colonoscopy but cannot afford it. If we stop even one cancer, we've made a difference, but the truth is, we will stop a lot more.
